Hats And Bonnets

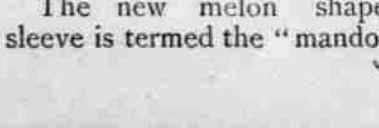

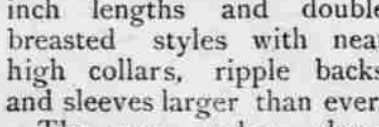

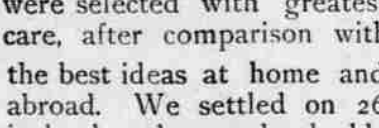

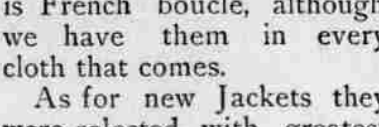

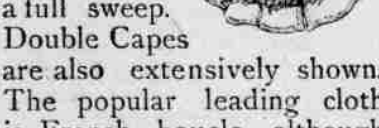

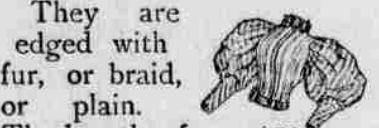

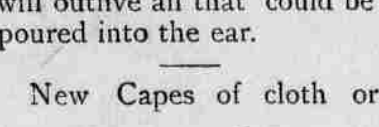

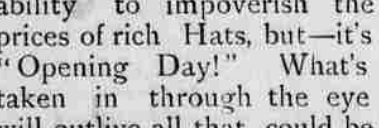

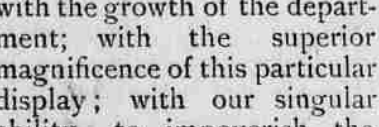

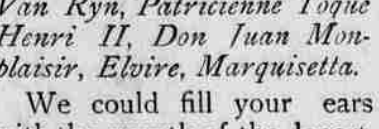

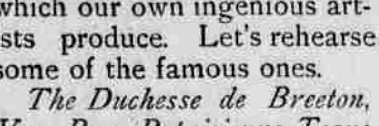

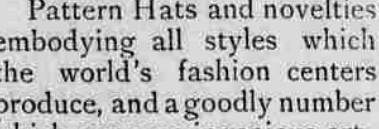

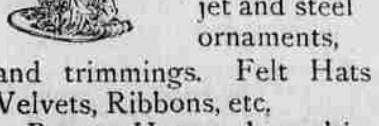

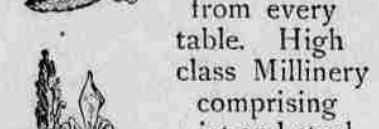

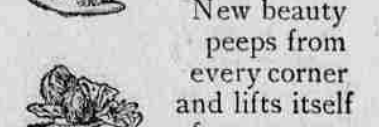

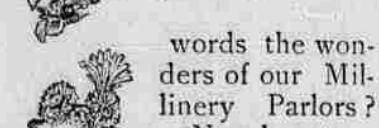

Capes and Jackets, Silks and Dress Goods, Gloves, Trimmings, etc., unite their loveliness for FALL OPENING DAYS, Wednesday and Thursday, October 2nd and 3d.

The purpose of this occasion is to have everybody examine thoroughly into the merits of all the new finery so carefully arranged for exhibition.

Store open Wednesday evening.

How shall we express in line." The cloths are the usual leading weaves in colors and black.

Children's garments, especially Gretchens, must be seen in order that one may form an accurate idea of the superiority of new styles and colors. Sizes run from 4 to 12 years.

Words fail to express the glories of the Cloak Room.

This special exhibition of Fall Dress Goods doesn't consist of a handful of this and that pretty pattern pushed to the front solely to make a show and—a false impression.

It is a grouping together of precious piles of merchandise carefully bought and calculated to meet the ever varying requirements of judicious womanly taste.

Quality is here all the time. Style most of the time. That is, if we know anything about style. If we are conceited about it, nearly 50 years of experience and the praise of so many customers made us so.

A list of hard names wouldn't make the goods a particle better. This occasion is purposely set, in order to have you see.

Take the verdict of sight and touch and thought. Don't take our say-so.

The Ladies' Neckwear buyer has gathered from the markets confusion of prettiness all the better novelties for neck adornment. The demand for these will be large, notably for sailor collar effects. See the many shapes and forms, made of silk or velvet trimmed with lace, chiffon or feathers.

Surely get a glimpse of the Pompadour Ruffles. Blouse Fronts, Chiffon and Lace Collarettes, and Plastrons. And don't miss a squint at the new and choice varieties of Lace Insertions and made-up band effects.

MALLEY-NEELY & CO.

To slight Gloves would be to slight a large part of good dressing, and our own superior facilities for hand dressing. Up on the testimonials of many customers, we are encouraged to hold tight fast the privilege and "right" of being the only New Haven merchants who sell the "Xavier Jouvin" Gloves. We've laid in thousands of pairs of these gloves which bear the stamp of newest styles, as well as the trusty traits upon which their reputation has been built.

There is something about the fingers that feels right. Something about the style that looks right. There's the entire glove that wears right. To be sure, we sell "other makes." People don't all think alike. We try to suit everybody's "think."
